

Global LEI Data Quality Report | September 2026

Summary

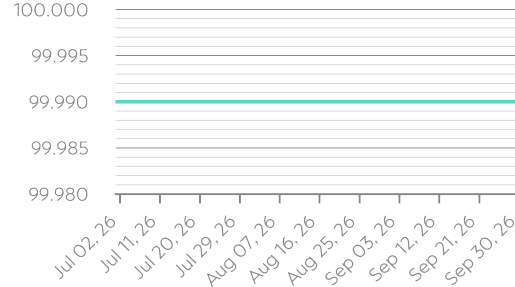

Key Metrics

Highlights

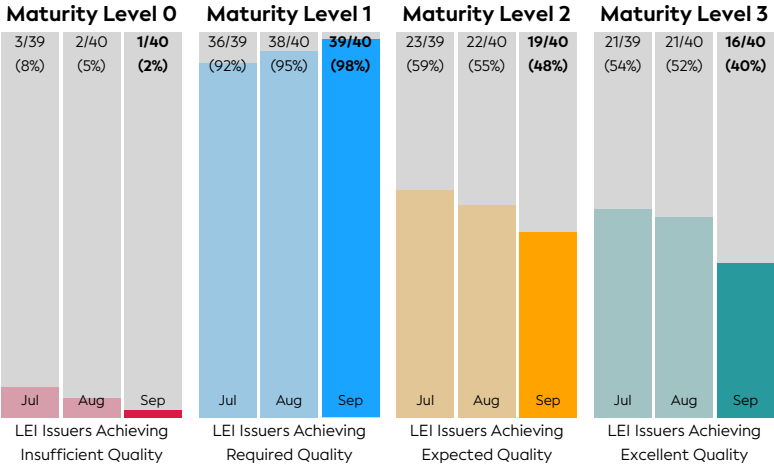

LEI data is continuously evolving, strengthening the transparency and reliability of legal entity information across the Global LEI System. Changes to core entity details like address, registration changes and/or relationship information help ensure that records remain current and useful for decision-making. In September 2026, an average of approximately 7,354 unique LEI records were added or updated each day, demonstrating the scale and frequency of data changes across the system.
